SNYDER & COMPANY ANNOUNCES NEW WEBSITE

LANCASTER, Ohio – Snyder & Company Certified Public Accountants is proud to announce a new website to better serve current and potential clients – www.snydercpas.com

“We have long maintained that our firm has a unique culture and approach to client service, yet have not had a public venue to help people experience what sets us apart,” said Linda L. Sheridan, managing partner. “Our clients know and understand the Snyder & Company difference, and we’re excited that more people can get to know our staff, our unique pricing structure and our approach to doing business through our new site.”

The new website includes an easy-to-navigate menu based on the visitor’s needs – individuals, businesses, or fellow professionals. The site also includes general firm information such as services and contact information. Additionally, the site provides insight about the firm’s personality through a different approach to staff biographies and a “we like to have fun, too!” page that provides a glimpse into the firm’s culture and approach to team building.
